Hi,

Hope that you are well and safe.

Unfortunately, your payout wasn't able to be finalized.

After reviewing your account and gameplay, we have found that you have a violation while playing in Our Casino. That violation is highly forbidden according to the Casino's Terms & Conditions which you agreed to upon the registration process.

-You have already had a payout from the same promotion you are requesting withdrawal from. Your promotion allows only two payouts from it.

Due to previously stated, the Management had no other option but to void all winnings.

In case anything is not clear about promotions or T&C, You can always contact us on 24/7 live chat, before You start playing.

Kind Regards, Payments Limitless

So I was refused before because I can't receive 2 payouts with 3 months and now I, ME, MYSELF, have made a violation within the casinos rules so is it just because you guys just don't want to pay me because I have deposited I have played over a year with limitless I have referred my friends and they play and pay. I've left good reviews and now this is how I am being sent around and around just earlier the money was put back into my account after my first withdraw was rejected and I try again and it was taken so maybe I need to contact someone else

I have every single withdraw email from the very beginning I can prove to you that even my last last withdrawal request was rejected for the same reason that was given the first time and now another reason was given so is it this or that is there understanding why I feel like I'm being sent in circles
